THE ALABAMA PHARMACY COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE ACT: HOW TO GET STARTED

Drs. Braxton-Lloyd, Durham, Nolen & Smithgall

Saturday, May 7, 2022 – 8 am-12 pm CT

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

This program will provide an overview of the Alabama Pharmacy Collaborative Practice Act (CPA) and offer guidance to pharmacists on how to get started.

The registration fee for this program is $75.

Following registration, participants will have access to course instructions, updates, presentations, webinar link, program evaluation, CE certificates and credits, etc. This program is approved for 4.0 ACPE Contact Hours, .04 CEUs. Once credit is awarded, transcripts will be available online within 24 hours on the learner's CPE Monitor profile at <http://nabp.pharmacy/>.

The Office of Alumni and Professional Affairs strongly encourages each participant to check their profile online within 60 days of attendance to ensure credit has been awarded properly. ACPE will not accept CE submissions after 60 days from the live seminar date.

This program is not sponsored by an external organization.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This knowledge-based program is intended for Pharmacists (ACPE).

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Find Alabama Pharmacy Collaborative Practice Act (CPA) resources that are available for pharmacy / pharmacist's reference and guidance.
- Discuss the legal and regulatory requirements outlined in the Alabama CPA Joint Rule.
- Apply these Alabama CPA regulations within individual pharmacy practices relevant to the learner.
- Identify and evaluate CPA opportunities within the learner's practice setting.
- Collect and synthesize data to guide selection of CPA services.
- Identify marketing strategies for CPA services.
- Compare and contrast legal and regulatory issues associated with collaborative practice versus billing for clinical services.
- Develop a collaborative agreement with a prescriber(s).
- Submit a collaborative agreement / protocol using the standard protocol and formulary outlined in the Alabama CPA.
- Describe clinical documentation requirements associated with a successful CPA.

ACTIVITY COMPLETION REQUIREMENTS

To complete the steps for CE credit, each attendee will be required to access and review program materials located within the online course, attend the live Zoom webinar, enter the attendance code within the course that was provided at the conclusion of the program, complete the program evaluation within the online course, and claim credit within the course. Please contact hsopce@auburn.edu if you have any questions or needs related to this online CE program.

FACULTY DISCLOSURES

Programming in with AUHSOP is in any way involved, whether as sole provider or joint-providership, shall exhibit fair content balance, providing the audience with information of multiple perspectives from which to form a professional opinion. In addition, the fair balance will assure that information provided does not discuss a commercial product. Brand names of all products included in the content may be mentioned for identification purposes only. Presenters in any continuing education offering will acknowledge and disclose any affiliation with the provider and such information will be made available to the audience.

Faculty disclosures will also be included on an introductory slide during the presentation. Drs. Braxton-Lloyd, Durham, Nolen & Smithgall have no actual or potential conflict of interest in relation to this program.

PROGRAM FACULTY

Kimberly Braxton Lloyd, Pharm.D. is the Associate Dean of Clinical Affairs and Outreach and provides administrative oversight for CAO's three branches: Clinical Health Services (CHS), Experiential Programs, and Alumni and Professional Affairs. She also serves as the Pharmacy Officer for Auburn University and works closely with Auburn University Human Resources in this role. She is a Gilliland Professor of Pharmacy Practice. Dr. Braxton Lloyd is a native of Cottondale, Florida. She studied at Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Alabama where she received a B.A. in Chemistry and then moved to Auburn and fell in love with The Plains. She received a B.S. in pharmacy in 1994 and a Pharm.D. in 1995 from the Harrison School of Pharmacy; completed a Pharmacy Practice Residency at the Medical Center in Columbus, Georgia in 1996; year one of a two-year research fellowship in pharmacoeconomics and outcomes research at the University of South Carolina in Columbia, South Carolina in 1997; and finished the last year of her fellowship training with GlaxoWellcome in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina in 1998. She then returned to Auburn and joined the faculty of HSOP. As Associate Dean of Clinical Affairs and Outreach, Dr. Braxton Lloyd is the administrator in charge of all clinical, pharmacy, and drug information services that are provided directly to patients, providers, or other stakeholders through AU's Harrison School of Pharmacy's Clinical Health Services division. Also, Dr. Braxton Lloyd and her alumni and professional affairs team strive to maintain strong relationships with HSOP alumni through ongoing training, development, and support following graduation. Dr. Braxton Lloyd is a nationally-recognized expert in pharmacy innovation. She has developed, implemented, assessed, validated, and expanded innovative practice models for large, self-insured employers in the academic and state government settings. She conducts applied pharmacoeconomics and outcomes research.

Anne Marie Nolen is a 2018 graduate of Samford University McWhorter School of Pharmacy. Upon graduation, Anne Marie pursued a PGY1 residency at Providence Health in Portland, Oregon. She stayed on with Providence to complete her PGY2 in ambulatory care, where she worked under 30+ collaborative practice agreements in the primary care setting. Anne Marie and her husband, Clay, moved back to Birmingham after residency where she now works as the Collaborative Practice Manager at the Alabama Board of Pharmacy.

Sean Smithgall, Pharm.D., joined the Harrison School of Pharmacy in August, 2016 as an assistant clinical professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice on the school's Mobile campus. Dr. Smithgall earned his Doctor of Pharmacy from East Tennessee State University College of Pharmacy in 2014. He went on to complete a PGY-1 residency in pharmacotherapy at Geisinger Medical Center in Danville, Pennsylvania. He followed that up with a PGY-2 residency in ambulatory care at the Bill Gatton College of Pharmacy at East Tennessee State University. Dr. Smithgall is an active member in the Alabama Society of Health-System Pharmacists (ALSHP), the American College of Clinical Pharmacy (ACCP), and the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy (AACP). Dr. Smithgall's research interest include transitions of care, interprofessional education, and implementation of shared-decision-making models in primary care practice.

Spencer H. Durham, Pharm.D., BCPS, BCIDP is an Associate Clinical Professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice and also serves as the Director of Alumni & Professional Affairs with the Harrison School of Pharmacy. Originally from Arab, Alabama, he completed his pre-pharmacy coursework at Auburn University and graduated with his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the Harrison School of Pharmacy in 2007. He went on to complete an ASHP-accredited post-graduate residency at Children's Health System in Birmingham, Alabama in 2008. After completion of his residency, he joined the staff at Sacred Heart Hospital in Pensacola, Florida as a clinical pharmacist specialist, a role he maintained for five years. In 2013, Dr. Durham joined the faculty of the Harrison School of Pharmacy, where he teaches in various courses throughout the curriculum. Additionally, Dr. Durham serves as the Director of Alumni and Professional Affairs under the Associate Dean for Clinical Affairs and Outreach. As part of this position, he works proactively with HSOP alumni and other health care professionals from throughout the state and region to foster the development of innovative practice models and to expand and enhance opportunities for continuous professional development. Dr. Durham also oversees the Office of Post Graduate Education (OPGE), which is responsible for the many continuing education programs offered each year by HCOP. Dr. Durham has published more than 20 peer-reviewed articles in respected journals and several book chapters. He is an active speaker each year at national, state, and local conferences, where he educates healthcare professionals on topics related to infectious diseases and antimicrobial stewardship. Additionally, Dr. Durham is active in several state and national organizations including the Alabama Pharmacy Association (APA), the Alabama Society of Health-Systems Pharmacists (ALSHP), the American College of Clinical Pharmacy (ACCP), and the American Society of Consultant Pharmacists (ASCP).
