CONTINUOUS GLUCOSE MONITORING EDUCATION FOR THE PRACTICING PHARMACIST

Dr. Heather Whitley

Recorded Webinar

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Continuous glucose monitors (CGM) continue to gain use among people with diabetes. Pharmacists are uniquely positioned to help patients' selection of CGM to use and support the interpretation of the glucose data that is retrieved from CGMs, which ultimately can impact care. This webinar will compare differences between CGMs and traditional blood glucose monitoring, discuss differences among CGM products, and offer methods to analyze data downloads from CGMs.

This webinar is part of our 5-part LIVE @ LUNCH Webinar Subscription series subscription for $100. Each individual course can be purchased separately for $25.

Following registration, participants will have access to course instructions, updates, presentations, recorded webinar, program evaluation, CE certificates and credits, etc. This program is approved for 1.0 ACPE Contact Hours, .1 CEUs. Once credit is awarded, transcripts will be available online within 24 hours on the learner's CPE Monitor profile at <http://nabp.pharmacy/>. This program is also approved by the ABN.

The Office of Alumni and Professional Affairs strongly encourages each participant to check their profile online within 60 days of attendance to ensure credit has been awarded properly. ACPE will not accept CE submissions after 60 days from the live seminar date.

This program is not sponsored by an external organization.

PROGRAM FACULTY

Heather Whitley, Pharm.D., BCPS is a Clinical Professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at Auburn University Harrison School of Pharmacy. She completed her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the Medical University of South Carolina in 2004, a Pharmacy Practice residency in 2005, and a Primary Care residency in 2006, both of which were ASHP-accredited residency programs. She is also a Board-Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist (BCPS) and a Certified Diabetes Educator.

She has practiced in multiple locations in Alabama as a Clinical Pharmacy Diabetes Specialist, including family medicine practices in the rural Black Belt, FQHC facilities, and most recently a family medicine residency program in Montgomery Alabama, affiliated with Baptist Health System. For the duration of her career, she has been faculty with the Auburn University Harrison School of Pharmacy.

Dr. Whitley has published more than 30 manuscripts and presented at the national and international arena predominantly on her diabetes related research. Her research includes diagnostic measures, diabetes care and the chronic care model, and the scholarship of teaching and learning, particularly as it involves provision of care at camps for children with type 1 diabetes.

Dr. Whitley is also closely involved with the Southeastern Diabetes Education Services by supporting Camp Seale Harris as an on-site pharmacist for years. There she cares for children with type 1 diabetes at over-night camps while teaching her pharmacy students on site.
